

Catalyst for Change February 2025

Dear Reader,

Welcome to our February edition of Catalyst for Change! Since February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month, see below for resources related to adolescent health and some ways Futures Without Violence \(FUTURES\) and other national organizations are raising awareness. This month, we're featuring our latest publications, including an educational brief on confidentiality and a practical guide with tools and principles to help health centers (HCs) establish safe documentation practices for IPV/HT/E in electronic health records (EHRs) and other technology platforms.

Also, find out how you can nominate an outstanding researcher for the 2025 Linda Saltzman New Investigator Award and participate in the Social Determinants of Health (SDOH) Academy 2025 Innovations Showcase. Keep reading for all the details!

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month (TDVAM)

February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month and it's important that we take this time to raise awareness that nearly 1 in 11 females and approximately 1 in 14 male high school students report having experienced physical dating violence in the last year. Health Partners on IPV + Exploitation invests in prevention strategies that promote healthy relationships among teens and young adults. See these Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month Resources:
